

Capital Region CROP Hunger Walks 2023

Indian Ladder Farms is teaming up with the Capital Region CROP Hunger Walks to bring local college students the opportunity to make a difference in raising money to combat hunger locally and globally.

On Saturday, April 1 we are hosting the Hike-the-Trail for Hunger @Indian Ladder Farms College CROP Walk. You are invited to come out to Indian Ladder Farms at the foothills of the escarpment, not to pick apples this time, but to hike the marked trails with your friends, roommates, teams, sorority, fraternity or any other group you are affiliated with.

We are inviting each local college to register and set up a team to raise money online prior to the Walk Day. Choose one of the following registration links based on where your school is located.
